DIVERSITY ACTIVITY GUIDE

The objective of this exercise is to expand students’ awareness and appreciation of differences. Students are cautioned not to participate in any activity that is intrusive or harmful to themselves or others. This activity should increase your tolerance, appreciation and support for differences. The completion of this activity supports TWU’s mission statements regarding diversity. DISCUSS YOUR PLANNED ACTIVITY WITH THE INSTRUCTOR BEFORE BEGINNING THE ACTIVITY.

The final product should be a paper of 4-8 pages and include the following.

CONTENT
1. Describe the specific activity completed.
2. What did you learn about yourself by doing this activity?
3. What did you learn about others by doing this activity?
4. What did you learn about our society by doing this activity?
5. Did this activity contribute to you becoming a better human? Family scientist? Explain in detail.
6. Would you describe this activity as successful and why?
7. Would you suggest this activity for others? How might others benefit from doing this activity?

FORMAT
1. The paper should be on 8.5 by 11 white 20 pound paper.
2. It should be typed double-spaced in #12 font.
3. The title should be all capitals with subheadings for each section of the paper.
4. Your name, class title and date should be in the upper right corner.
5. The paper should be stapled in the upper left corner.
6. Papers in folders or covers will not be accepted.

This diversity activity cannot be used to meet the requirements for any other class. It is exclusively for this class.