Clinical Case Format

1) Introduction
   a. Write a paragraph relating the clinical case presented
   b. Provide general information about the disease such as definition, subtypes, prevalence, etiology, predominance (males or females, race, etc.)

2) Provide detailed explanation of the physiology of the systems involved

3) Provide detailed explanation of the pathophysiology of the disease, the systems
   involved

4) Diagnosis
   a. Enumerate and explain the signs and symptoms only related to the clinical case.
   b. Explain the test results
   c. Explain other tests you would ask including tests used to differentiate from other close diseases

5) Treatment
   a. Explain the drugs and procedures done and how they work to correct or control the disease

6) References (minimum)
   a. 1 book
   b. 4 scientific articles

Rubric for the paper: Hard Copy Paper = 50%
1) 20 pts
2) 20 pts
3) 20 pts
4) 20 pts
5) 15 pts
6) 5 pts

Presentation = 50%