5. Observation
(max 10 pts)

Students are expected to volunteer a minimum of 2 hours in a physical activity, health, or sport setting. You are expected to be involved in either working, planning, or observing (w/ interview) a scheduled event with the Collin athletic department, student life, wellness program, or an independent event. The chosen event must be related to physical education AND be an activity in which you have little experience. The point is to spend time learning in a future career choice. Observation choices must be approved by the instructor in writing. You must e-mail your observation choice to the instructor inside Blackboard by midnight Sunday, Sept. 6 in order to avoid a 3 point penalty. Failure to get approval from instructor will result in a grade of zero. A 2-3 page typed paper (12- point font, double spaced) detailing your experience must be submitted by Monday, Nov. 30, 5pm. No credit will be given unless a scanned signature & contact information is received from the event supervisor. This assignment must be submitted (including the scanned signature of the supervisor) inside the Assignments tool by 5:00 pm. Grade available Monday, Dec. 14, 11am.

Special note: You must communicate with the instructor INSIDE BLACKBOARD by midnight, Sunday, Sept. 6. Communication can be in various forms, including: e-mailing your historical topic, taking the extra credit syllabus quiz, e-mailing your response to the course agreement, answering a discussion or emailing to say hello. Sept. 8 is the census date and the instructor has to submit names of any student who is not active in the course. Once your name has been submitted as "inactive", you could be dropped from the course...and you WILL NOT BE RE-ADDED.

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE WITH BLACKBOARD IS AVAILABLE FOR YOU:

If you have any technical problems related to Blackboard or CougarWeb, you can click this technical support link, http://online.collin.edu/TechnicalSupport.html

Call the 24-hour/ 7 days per week support user line at 972-377-1777 x 5. Examples of when you might call this number are when you have trouble viewing power point lectures or videos, have trouble submitting assignments, cannot read e-mail or experience other technical problems inside Blackboard. The instructor will most likely refer you to this service, so always call them first. If you encounter a problem between 9am and 5pm Monday- Friday, you might get faster assistance by calling the eLC at 972-881-5870. You can also e-mail them at ELC@collin.edu.
Upon Review of This Syllabus You Should

1. Read it again thoroughly. Make sure you are clear about the expectations of the course and are willing to put in the time necessary to do well. This course requires a significant time commitment. Late assignments or excuses will not be accepted. Remember, you are completing the same amount of work as an on-site class. Time management is essential.

2. Develop an emergency plan for submitting your work. Find out campus library hours in advance so that you can use the campus computers if you run into problems. Know where the closest Fed Ex Office (or similar business) is in case the campus libraries are closed. Identify someone who will be able to assist you if you are not familiar with word documents or Blackboard. Computer problems are no excuse! Work must be submitted inside Blackboard in the correct format for credit. Submit work early to ensure you won’t lose points.

3. Print a hardcopy of the syllabus. Keep it in a safe place you can refer to often. Highlight due dates. Be sure to download an updated copy inside Blackboard once classes start. Page 5, under the course calendar, shows the date the syllabus was last updated. Compare your hard copy to the syllabus inside blackboard.

4. Purchase the required text for the course (see page 1 of syllabus). Always take a copy of the syllabus with you when purchasing your books. Don’t rely on bookstore employees to sell you the correct book. It is your responsibility to purchase the correct book.

5. Make sure your computer is ready to work. Make use of the Distance learning Dept. website at http://online.collin.edu for an orientation and additional resources.

6. To locate your course offered in Blackboard, go to cougarweb.collin.edu and log in. Click on the “My Courses” tab and click on your course listed in the My Courses channel. It will take you to your Blackboard course.

7. All items must be completed by Sunday, Sept. 6 midnight 1.) Extra Credit Syllabus Quiz. It is a 15 minute maximum quiz that tests your knowledge on the syllabus. 2.) Review the Course Agreement. Send confirmation of review via Blackboard e-mail to instructor. 3.) Choose a topic for your historical perspectives paper and e-mail your choice to the instructor. 4.) Choose a place to complete your volunteer/observation hours and e-mail your choice to the instructor for approval.
